THE PIONEER SPIRIT HAS PLAYED AN INTEGRAL ROLE IN HISTORY. THE DESIRE TO BE THE FIRST TO ACCOMPLISH A FEAT OR OVERCOME AN OBSTACLE HAS FOSTERED COMPETITION AND PROGRESS. THIS IS CLEARLY DEMONSTRATED IN THE SOLDIERS INVOLVED IN THE CRUSADES AND THE PIONEERS OF THE OLD WEST. THIS FORCE IS CONTINUED WITHIN US AS CRUSADERS IN OUR FOUR YEARS AT BERGEN AND FOR THE REST OF OUR LIVES. WE ARE THE CRUSADERS AND WE WILL CONTINUE TO VENTURE AND TRAILBLAZE IN THE TRADITION OF BERGEN CATHOLIC STUDENTS.

Obrotka, James

Mr. James Obrotka

An annual custom of the CRUSADER staff is to dedicate the yearbook to a faculty member or members. In the year of 1985, the staff has chosen to honor one of the pioneers of Bergen Catholic High School, Mr. James Obrotka, who is most commonly known as Señor. Mr. Obrotka started his teaching career in 1944 at St. Francis Xavier Grammar School in Brooklyn where he instructed students in general music. He also taught choral music and orchestra at St. Francis Xavier Academy for Girls, Power Memorial Academy in New York City, and All Hallows Institute in the Bronx before coming to Bergen Catholic in 1955. While at B.C., Mr. Obrotka has taught freshmen English and Spanish I and II.

Besides teaching, he has an active extra-curricular life. He was the organist and choir master at St. Francis Xavier Grammar School from 1938 to 1968. In 1968, he left New York City and became the organist and choir master at Holy Trinity in Hackensack. He has a band which bears his name that plays at many different social functions, and he also orchestrates B.C.'s stage band. Mr. Obrotka has made two albums of Sacred Music and was also the music director of B.C.'s Showtime for the past 26 years.

This will be Mr. Obrotka's last year at Bergen Catholic because he plans to retire at the end of the school year. His future will be comprised of visiting friends, spending time at his Pocono home, attending to his land on the Rio Rico Estates in Arizona, continuing his hobby of woodworking, and writing and composing Mass music.

Mr. Obrotka hopes that the faculty will continue their fantastic job of instructing the students not only academically, but also principally and morally as well.

Le deseamos lo mejor que la vida pueda ofrecer, señor Obrotka.

In Memoriam

Keith Potter
1968-1984

In a recent essay for a religion class on moral growth, Keith was asked to consider the question of adulthood; specifically, what makes a person an adult. The following is a copy of that essay

To be an adult means to be a careful person who thinks from the time he starts something until the time he finishes. It is a sign that one can handle himself in almost any situation. It is my opinion that friends and family help to shape and make us what we are.

To become an adult, a person has to first utilize or realize the importance of a good backing or influence to help him. When he had this going for him, then these bridges will be easier to cross and only then. Steps are taken slowly and unstably, but these steps will eventually lead us to becoming an adult. Steps have to be taken to emphasize the importance of morals. When he has finally figured out his best path, he has taken the major steps in becoming an adult.

Many things can make us turn from the right path to becoming an adult, such as a death in the family, or pressure from friends. They can turn us away from the proper course and lead us to make wrong decisions and eventually mess up our lives.

We have to overcome all of the challenges we meet in order to come to adulthood. Some of the challenges I have met and overcome would include such things as overcoming peer pressure to smoke and even try drugs. The people who tried to pressure me into these things, I lost respect for. Real friends do not do this so I decided to let go of these friends and make new ones. I also decided that a good way to become an adult would be to do good for others. This would help me to grow as well as to overcome the problem of selfishness. To me overcoming challenges was the biggest challenge of all.

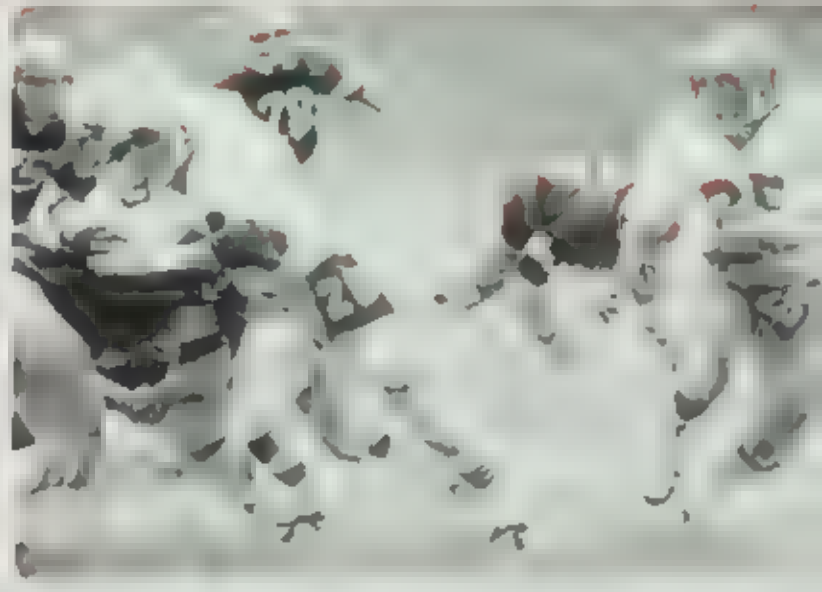

During my journey to adulthood my family was there to fall back upon. My parents and older brother and sisters guided me by sharing their knowledge with me. My friends were also one of the biggest steps towards adulthood and maturity. I feel I was lucky to have such great support from all and it made this very big step into life very easy as opposed to if I had to do it on my own.

To me a person becomes an adult when he is ready to help others grow to their fullest. It is also a person who can handle his own responsibilities without losing his temper or turning to drugs or alcohol.

Gerard Bochese out muscles opponent for mid air ball.

B.C. Soccer is definitely on the rise and an up and coming sport for this High School. The powerful team this year, consisting of a relatively balanced mix of seniors and juniors finished as high as the semi-finals in both the County and State Tournaments. This is not even mentioning the sharing of the N.N.J.L. Bergen Division Championship with perennial power Don Bosco. The starting line-up, consisting of 6 juniors and only 5 seniors, points to only great things to come in future play.

The strength of this year's team was its ability to play strong defense. Most of the scoring came from the junior class - Chris Unger with 13 goals and 8 assists, Pete Campbell with 12 goals and Greg Schwake with 8 goals. Two seniors rounded out the scoring honors with Rob Diestel getting 9 goals and Joe DelicCarri picking up 10. Bergen posted 8 shutouts, leading to giving up 33 goals in 21 games.

Phil Kassar sets up for a long toss.

Bob Diestel pivots on injured leg as he blasts home a goal.

The B.C. Jay-Vee Soccer Team, which was coached by Mr. DeJaguer, had an over all winning season. The offense, which was led by Tom Ardese, played an outstanding scoring game which brought the team over 30 goals. The midfield kept pushing the ball towards the opponent and too the control of our scores. The young sophomore defense counter attacked many strong offenders such as Don Bosco, St Joseph's and Hackensack, to contribute to B.C.'s undisputed wins. When the dust cleared, the real heroes of the game were goal tenders Mike O'Connor and Joe Derico, who controlled the team with the best view on the field. The team pleased with 11 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties hung up the cleats for another year

PAROCHIAL A NORTH STATE CHAMPS

The Crusaders entered the 1984-85 basketball season not knowing exactly how their season would go. Many observers felt this young and inexperienced team would encounter many difficulties in the brutal NNJIL Bergen Division. How wrong they were! The team led by senior co-captain Vin DiMella, jumped out to a school record 16-0 start. Then, the tables began to turn and the squad lost 5 of 6 games. The team then recovered to win a share of the league title and a Northern New Jersey State Championship. The State Championship was a win over New Jersey's fourth ranked team, Seton Hall Prep.

This season was filled with many great memories for seniors Vin DiMella, Matt McBride, Joe DelliCarri and Dan Hopkins. First, there was the triple overtime victory over archrival Don Bosco. Then the Crusaders went abroad to Puerto Rico for two victories. Upon their return, Coach Donfield led his troops to victories over league powers Ridgewood, Teaneck, and Hackensack. Perhaps the biggest thrill of the regular season was a stunning upset over previously undefeated Paterson Eastside.

Great tribute must be given to Coach Donfield on a job well done. B.C. once again proved that the 'experts' can be proven wrong through hard work, dedication, and a desire to win.

RIGHT TO LIFE ASSOCIATION

This year's Right to Life Association is composed of students who are concerned about protecting the lives of unborn children and caring for those already born but in need of material assistance. To carry out these concerns, the group has adopted three goals for its members. First of all, the group conducted a clothing and furniture drive for Birthright, an organization in Bergen County which provides positive counseling, alternate residences and material help for women with problem pregnancies. A second goal was action on behalf of the unborn. This took the form of participating in the March for Life in Washington D.C. and lobbying in congressional offices for legislation aimed at protecting the unborn. Twenty-six students attended this March, which drew crowds over 71,000 people on January 22. The third, and on going goal is education of its members and the school community about the right to life issue. Speakers and films have been planned to highlight the priority of this important human rights issue. The Club, moderated by Mr. Horner, invites all interested students to participate in its activities, and thanks both the parents and the Student Government for its material and financial support of its activities.

SKI CLUB

PARENTS' CLUB

MOTHERS' CLUB

As another edition of the Crusader draws to a close, so does another academic year at Bergen Catholic. For the class of '85, it marks a new beginning, a new experience in pioneering. For the underclassmen, it marks another milestone in their career at Bergen. As we continue in our lives, we should not forget our past - That is the purpose of the Crusader. Our education has had an effect on us as members of society and we should never forget the values taught us here at Bergen Catholic. Use the Crusader to remind you of these values and experiences which have been such an important part of your four years of high school.
